Our Town

By Peggy Blanchard

Golly! Ever since the Evening News hit the streets, about 4:50 p.m. Tuesday, my ears have burned like mad—especially the left one!

Seriously, though, it is hard to say goodbye to this corner of The Campbell Press. I am not the most brilliant newspaper person ever to occupy such a column, so I have felt it a great honor to be associated with one of Santa Clara Valley's oldest newspapers. Harry and I have been proud to represent it and its owner, Patrick H. Peabody.

Mr. Peabody has earned our admiration, respect and affection. Ever since the day we met him little more than a year ago he has been unfailingly fair and kind, putting us on our mettle to merit the confidence he has shown us.

And it's a pleasure to thank the correspondents and chairmen who have worked with us this year to bring you news of our town. Right off hand we think of Mrs. Ira Grim, Mrs. F. A. Jacobson and their committees in the Country Woman's club, Mrs. Weeks and Mrs. Jack Chappell of the Rebekahs, Mrs. Edith Morley and others of the American Legion auxiliary, and a host of others like John Lynden, Robert Wurfer Sr., Art Tindall, Herbert Shadle, to mention only a few.

The Carney Ranch on Hamilton avenue will soon be turned over to new owners.

Established 70 years ago—that would be 1787—it's been in one family all this time. Now Mrs. Mary Jane Barrett, grand daughter of the original owners, is selling it to a Mrs. Harvey, who, we hear, plans to grow violets for the commercial market.

The Campbell Garden Club has a wonderful idea, what do you think about it?

They've asked everyone who has a front window facing Campbell avenue from Winchester road to the San Jose-Los Gatos highway to display a potted plant or bouquet of flowers on Wednesday, Oct. 20—the day of their first big flower show.

I just know the store owners along the street will support them in this and it seems like everyone will want to pay the club this compliment.

Some 60 women have worked for months planning the big affair, which we hope will become an annual institution in our town. Proceeds will be used for permanent Golden Garden plantings in Campbell as a memorial for California's centennial.

It's all part and parcel of their inviting slogan—so "Let's Blossom Out!"

Mrs. Joaquin Miranda has a green thumb for sure. She has transformed her home and yard at 146 N. Harrison into an oriental garden.

Among her plants and shrubs are: a large stand of terrel (the elephant ears from which Islanders make their famous poi) a passion fruit vine, banana tree, bamboo, orchid tree, Hawaiian April Showers, date palm and orange, lemon, lime, peach, apple, fig, loquas, walnut and plum trees.

And now she has her eye on a tea plant.

Sue Stuckey's prize for an essay on citizenship reminds me of the last day for registration a couple of weeks ago when Guy E. Farley spent the whole day and far into the evening writing up registrations so that you and I can

"Grown Up County" Theme of Charter Talk at Kiwanis

"Santa Clara County has grown up since its present government was set up by state laws in 1850" Assemblyman Robert C. Kirkwood told Campbell Kiwanis club Tuesday.

Chairman of the Citizens Committee which sponsors the new county charter, Kirkwood addressed the club at its luncheon.

More than 800 cities and counties now govern themselves by similar charter, he said, Herbert M. Shadle was chairman for the program.

Among Kiwanis club members attending a convention in Reno this week are: Lowell Benson, president, Clarence Nelson, Lloyd Nelson, J. M. Dahl, J. V. Gomes, Guy E. Farley, Budd Levenberg and Norman Corvello.

Family Panel at PTA Session OK's Earned Allowance

Parents and pupils agreed Wednesday that High School students should earn their allowances, have definite budgets and responsibilities. They met in round table discussion at a PTA session in Campbell Union High School.

Even the girls agreed that the son of a family needs the car oftener than a daughter and parents spoke up for listening to junior's side of a question before final decisions on conduct, hours and budgets are decided.

In fact, the panel of parents and youngsters and the large group of parents who attended all seemed to feel that fair play and a good example still head the list of successful ways to raise a child.

The discussion, led by Miss Muriel Carson, faculty advisor, was held after a cafeteria dinner at which parents tried out a typical menu and self-service offered high school students each noon at the high school dining room.

Laurence J. Hill, superintendent of the High School District, spoke briefly on behalf of the school bond election to be held Friday by the Campbell Union Elementary District.

Ball Managers Asked To Meet

Bill Perry, basketball and assistant football coach at the Campbell High School, has called a meeting of all managers of teams in the "Town League" for next Tuesday night, October 19.

The meeting, to be held in the gym at the High School at 7:30, is to formulate plans for the coming basketball season. All last year's managers, or interested sponsors are urged to attend this important meeting.

Bucs Pull One from the Fire; Strong Come-Back in Last Seconds Saves Game

It's hard to single out individual stars in prep football games, but in the case of last Friday's Buccaneer-San Jose Tech fray, it's doubly hard not to, because there were a couple of outstanding players. Without intending to detract one whit from the stellar playing of the entire Campbell team, accurate reporting demands the recognition of a converted tackle, Jesse Holt by name. And in the same breath Halfback Bob Praena, the little number 5 who kept right on pitching 'till he connected.

The do-or-die last second efforts of these two pulled the game from the fire, set under them by a desperately charging Tech team led by a strapping gent whose

Sue Stuckey Wins Cash Prize in Radio Contest

Fifty words won a Campbell girl $250 cash and a camping trailer as prizes in a radio essay contest Sunday.

Miss Sue Stuckey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Stuckey of North First street, was presented with the two prizes for a theme written in her junior English class at Campbell Union High School last June. The winner is now in her senior year at high school.

She and her teacher, Mrs. Marjorie Green both appeared on the broadcast Sunday morning when the award was made.

Sue was one of 20 weekly winners on June 6 when she won $25 for her essay on "How I Can Be of Most Value to My Community."

The same theme won her the grand prize in competition with 19 other winners from San Jose, and other valley communities. It reads as follows:

I can be of greatest value to my community "by being the kind of a person I want my children to be, by voting as I see right, by supporting as many community activities as possible, by helping to keep the community clean and beautiful and by, above all, treating my neighbor as I would like to be treated."

BPW To Sponsor Lights for Field

Prospects of lighting Campbell Grammar School playground for night baseball grew brighter Wednesday evening as the Campbell BPW voted to sponsor the project. Replies to letters sent to 24 other organizations in town indicate a lively interest in light for the field and the Business and Professional Women's Club will spearhead a movement to raise necessary funds.

Speakers at a BPW dinner at the Campbell House Wednesday were G. Arthur Tindall and F. A. Reese.

Tindall, recreation director, told of the 1948 summer program in which hundreds of children and grownups took part and described the need for more play equipment.

As secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Reese welcomed the new women's club and said that the C of C "can be counted on for 100 per cent support of BPW endeavors."

SCHOOL BOND ELECTION

Tomorrow, Friday, October 15, the fate of education in Campbell Union (Elementary) School District is in the hands of the voters.

Some time between the hours of 7 a.m. and 7 p.m. every registered voter who holds American Democracy dear will go to the polls and cast his ballot.

To use the right to vote is a duty, but it becomes a pleasure when we remember the millions denied this right throughout the world today.

The issue at stake tomorrow is not a complicated one. Here are the facts:

The three buildings now serving Campbell's grade schools were constructed to serve 1500 children.

Two thousand children now answer the roll call every day.

More children are moving to the district daily.

Not only the 1000 youngsters added to the rolls in the past four years, but EVERY child now enrolled in grades one to eight must be "scimped" on his education until more classrooms are available.

Campbell Grammar School, San Tomas and Moorpark Schools ALL need to be larger.

Children who learn reading, writing and arithmetic only half-way now, will be only half-prepared for citizenship in the near future.

Consider YOUR children's future—

Vote for School Bonds Friday, October 15!

Why Not Waffles?

By BETTY BARCLAY

After long hours spent out-of-doors, during those first days of Spring gardening, no woman relishes the task of preparing an elaborate meal. So, why not waffles? Waffles with bacon are easy to prepare and easy to serve—especially when baked right at the table. You'll find that these Buttermilk Flakes Waffles will always be acclaimed. It's that famous Grape-Nuts flavor which makes them worthy of such praise.

Buttermilk Flakes Waffles

1 cup sifted flour
1/2 teaspoon soda
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup Grape-Nuts Flakes
2 egg yolks, well beaten
1 cup buttermilk or sour milk
4 tablespoons melted butter or other shortening
2 egg whites

Sift flour once, measure, add soda and salt, and sift again. Add flakes and mix well. Combine egg yolks, milk, and butter; add to flour mixture, beating only until smooth. Beat egg whites until they will hold up in moist peaks. Stir quickly but thoroughly into batter. Bake in hot waffle iron. Serve with maple-flavored syrup. Makes three 4-section waffles.

Homemaking Today

By Claire Raymond
P. C. and E. Home Economist, San Jose

"Hi Mom—got anything to eat?" If this is a familiar afternoon greeting in your household, it's time to plan after-school snacks.

A bite between meals, especially in the afternoon, is important to growing children because regular meals seem so far apart. The food should be something light and nourishing, but only temporarily satisfying so that it will not spoil appetites for dinner. Such foods as milk, crackers, light sandwiches, fruit or cookies are excellent.

Try serving a banana milk shake with plain cookies or graham crackers. Use 1 fully ripe banana to 1 cup of cold milk. Slice the banana into a bowl and beat with a rotary beater or electric mixer, then add the milk and mix thoroughly. Mashed bananas also combine well with fruit juices such as orange or grape juice.

One way to solve the snack problem is to have jars of special spreads with which the children can spread their own crackers or bread. Here are a few suggestions for combinations that aren't too heavy and will store well in covered jars in your refrigerator:

Peanut butter and grated carrots with lemon juice
Cream cheese and chili sauce

Chopped dates or raisins and chopped nuts moistened with orange juice
Cottage cheese and chopped ripe olives
Peanut butter and chopped raisins with honey
Chopped hard-cooked eggs, grated carrots and minced celery
Cottage cheese and chopped peanuts
Peanut butter and bits of crisp bacon
Baked beans mashed with catsup or relish
Cottage cheese with chopped prunes

OATMEAL COOKIES

With a full cookie jar, you are always ready for the "after-school parade." This oatmeal cookie recipe is an especially good one.

1 cup sifted all-purpose flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
3/4 cup shortening
1 cup brown sugar
2 eggs
1 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 cup milk
3 cups rolled oats (quick or old-fashioned)
1 cup chopped nuts
1/2 cup grated bitter chocolate

Sift flour, baking powder and salt together into a bowl. Add shortening (soft), sugar, eggs, vanilla and about half the milk. Beat until smooth—about 2 minutes. Fold in remaining milk, rolled oats, nuts and grated chocolate. Drop from a teaspoon onto greased baking sheet and bake for 12 to 15 minutes in oven preheated to 375° F. Makes approximately 4 dozen cookies.

Cheese Waffles

Add 1 cup grated cheese to sifted dry ingredients.

Bacon Waffles—Cut bacon in 1-inch cubes to make 1 cup. Fry slowly until about half done and stir into batter before folding in egg whites. Use bacon fat in place of the melted shortening. If you prefer, fry strips of bacon until half done and lay two strips on each waffle before baking.

Corn Waffles—Add 1 1/2 cups of canned, whole-kernel corn to batter before folding in egg whites. These are especially good served with creamed chicken or ham.

Butterscotch Nut Waffles—Add 2 tablespoons brown sugar to dry ingredients. Sprinkle chopped nuts over batter before baking.

Waffle wafers look like waffles but they are actually baking powder biscuits baked in a waffle baker. Roll biscuit dough 1/4-inch thick and cut the dough into rounds, or into 1 1/2-inch squares. Spread half the biscuits with a finely minced sandwich spread such as deviled ham or minced olives, then cover with another biscuit. Put a "sandwich" in each section of the hot waffle baker. Serve immediately with a salad for luncheon.

Have you ever tried making French toast in your waffle baker? It is easy to do and makes the toast crisp and golden brown. Add 3 or 4 tablespoons melted shortening to the egg-milk mixture to keep the French toast from sticking to the waffle baker. Cut the bread in triangles, dip quickly in the batter, then fit the slices on the hot waffle baker.

SWEET POTATO BISCUITS

Have you ever made Sweet Potato Biscuits? They are especially good as a topping for a meat or chicken pie. You can use up leftover sweet potatoes this way.

1 cup sifted all-purpose flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup shortening
1 cup mashed sweet potatoes.
3 tablespoons milk (about)

Sift dry ingredients together. Cut in shortening with two knives or a pastry blender. Add sweet potatoes and enough milk to make a soft dough. Knead lightly, if desired. Roll to 1/2-inch thickness, cut in rounds, and place on a baking sheet. Bake for 15 to 20 minutes in oven preheated to 425° F. Makes 12 medium or 15 small biscuits.

SWEET POTATO PIE

This is one of the favorites of the South and often is preferred to pumpkin pie.

1/2 cup sugar
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon allspice
1/2 teaspoon mace
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 1/2 cups mashed sweet potatoes
2 eggs, slightly beaten
1 cup milk
2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine
1 nine-inch unbaked pastry shell

Mix sugar, cinnamon, allspice, mace and salt. Stir in sweet potatoes. Combine eggs, milk and butter or margarine. Add to sweet potato mixture. Pour into the pastry shell. Bake for 40 minutes, or until filling is set, in oven preheated to 400° F.

Doughnuts For Dunking

Doughnuts and cider are a traditional combination that wins new friends each year.

Whether you buy them at the bakery, or go home and fry your own, doughnuts have an appeal that makes them all-season eating. These sour milk doughnuts have exceptional tenderness and puff lightly when dunked in deep, hot fat.

Doughnuts are not hard to make, though there are certain pointers which make them special successes. Measuring correctly is important, and in this case, ingredients should be well mixed before doughnuts are cut from the dough. Use a floured cutter to keep the symmetrical shape and avoid sticking.

Be sure that the fat is hot enough—not smoking, but up to the "doughnut" or 375 degrees F. level on the fat thermometer. Slide the doughnut into the hot fat and watch it bubble to the surface as it browns its underside. Then turn and brown the other side. Just one turn insures that the doughnut is evenly done and not soaked with fat. Three minutes will do both sides.

Doughnuts are good just as they are, but you may want to roll them in powdered sugar or shake them in a bag with coarse granulated sugar.

SOUR MILK DOUGHNUTS

4 1/2 cups sifted enriched flour
1 1/2 teaspoons soda
1/2 teaspoon cream of tartar
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup sour milk or buttermilk
1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
3 eggs
1 cup sugar
3 tablespoons shortening, melted

Sift together flour, soda, cream of tartar, salt and nutmeg. Beat eggs until thick and lemon-colored. Add sugar, gradually beating it in. Add shortening and buttermilk or sour milk. Add flour mixture. Mix well. Roll out one-fourth inch thick on lightly floured board or pastry cloth. Cut with a floured doughnut cutter. Fry in deep hot fat (375 degrees F.) for three minutes. Brown one side and then the other. Yield: About three dozen doughnuts three inches in diameter.

Visions of Crocus, Hyacinth, Daffodil Beds Inspire Late-Fall Bulb Planters

By ED CARMAN

You should begin right now to lay out your beds for the various spring blooming bulbs. There are many places where bulbs can be used. They will do well in any sunny, well drained spot. Line your walks with a border of tulips or narcissus. Plant them along a fence, in beds, or against shrubs or hedges. Group plantings in rock gardens are very effective.

The ground for most all bulbs should be well spaded and be well drained. A little bone meal mixed with the soil helps to promote a good root growth. The best way to do this is to dig a hole two or three inches deeper than you need for any particular bulb, then mix about a teaspoon full of bone meal thoroughly in the bottom. Cover this mixture with a layer of top soil without fertilizer in it and place the bulb on this. In heavy soils a thin layer of sand to set the bulb on is very good.

One of the first bulbs to bloom in the spring is the Crocus. These bloom very close to the ground and come in several colors. The Crocus is especially suited to planting in drifts or little clusters at the edge of the lawn or shrub borders. They can be planted right through the sod if you are careful to watch for them coming up in the Spring and not clip them off with the lawn mower.

The daffodil or narcissus are the first of the major bulbs to bloom in the spring. They are probably one of the best known and liked of all the bulbs. These come in many different colors and bi-colors. The yellow King Alfred being the most popular and one of the most colorful. By planting the Blue Wedgewood Dutch Iris with the King Alfred Daffodil a very nice blue and yellow color combination can be worked out.

Tulips are one of the best bulbs for mass plantings. These come in a great range of colors and by planting different varieties you can have a longer blooming period.

The hyacinths, tall spikes of red, white, blue and yellow make very effective borders for walks, around pools or bird baths. These need not be the largest forcing size as the bedding size will give a nice bloom in the ground. Hyacinths can also be grown in pots or pot-tery planters and in special glasses.

The bright colors of the Ranunculus make it one of the favorites for bedding and for cut flowers. They grow 12 to 15 inches high and have double flowers very much like a camellia.

This is only a partial list of the many bulbs which should go in for Spring blossoms. There are of course many other ways that these can be used and many more bulbs of different sizes and colors which are available now. If, after planting your bulb bed you want a good, quick, colorful cover try sowing some Virginian Stock seed and let it grow wild. Then when the bulbs begin to bloom it can be pulled out.

Streamline Check Service to Veterans

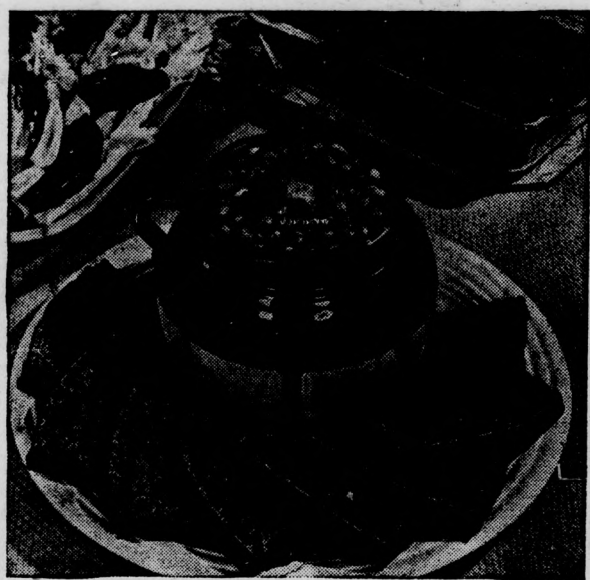

Veterans enrolled in Northern California educational institutions are assured of prompt receipt of government checks under a newly streamlined control system in the Regional Office of the Veteran's Administration, according to Congressman Jack Z. Anderson. This simple and effective control, Anderson says, enables the Regional Office to know at all times the status of each individual veteran's case. It also provides for notifying each veteran of the receipt of his enrollment papers, the date by which he can expect his check, and a notification of the nature of any undue delay.

In a letter to Anderson, Robert P. Shields, manager of the Regional Office, said, "By November 15, we expect to have checks out to all veterans whose complete records we have, and whose enrollment papers are received in the Regional Office during September.

1/4 cup molasses

Sift flour, soda, salt, and sugar together. Add Graham flour and mix well. Cut in shortening until mixture is like meal. Add raisins and mix. Combine eggs, sour milk, and molasses.

Turn liquids into dry ingredients and stir vigorously until all flour is dampened. Pour batter into two Sprycoted loaf pans, 8 x 6 inches. Bake in moderate oven (350°F.) 45-50 minutes. Or bake in 10 x 10-inch pan at 350°F. 45-50 minutes.

Variation. If desired, the brown bread can be steamed in three 1-pound cans or molds for 1 1/4 hours.

For later enrollments, which result in our not receiving their papers until sometime in October, we expect to have the checks out on or before December 5."

The new plan aims at the prevention of complaints by insuring prompt payment, and keeping the veteran informed. "For those complaints which do materialize," Shields concludes, "we are prepared, by utilizing the Control System, to provide expedited action."

After a short business session at which several resolutions were voted upon, also several interesting and important reports were given, it was announced that the Grange will hear the other side of the charter movement at its next meeting on October 26, as well as reports about the state convention by our delegates, Master and Mrs. H. Shadle.

The refreshment committee for the evening consisted of Mrs. Gordon, Mrs. Virginia Rutherford and Mrs. Van, who served strawberry shortcake, the strawberries grown and furnished by Mervin Keesling.

ERASE THAT BLOT!

Featherbedding has robbed labor of public esteem. It forces responsible workmen to stand idle or reduce their productive capacity—in a nation that grew to greatness because it knew how to produce! That's why featherbedding is no part of responsible labor. That's why thinking working people say: END FEATHERBEDDING! HELP BRING PRICES DOWN! VOTE YES ON 3!

A Message to DEMOCRATS

On September 17, 1948, the Houston Chronicle, published by Jesse H. Jones, a member of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt's Cabinet, recommended the election of Thomas E. Dewey and Earl Warren.

An editorial said

"It should be obvious to all thinking people that we need a change in our National Administration. To deny this would be to close our eyes to conditions both at home and abroad, and generally to the mess we are in."

The Chronicle editorial said that however well-intentioned President Truman's leadership may be, "He has not shown the leadership necessary for the successful management of our national and international affairs . . . It has been demonstrated that Mr. Truman cannot work successfully with Congress or even lead members of his own party . . . open warfare between the executive and legislative branches of the government necessarily makes for bad administration at home and weakens us abroad."

"Asserting that an overhauling is badly needed, the editorial continued "entrenched government has no intention of abandoning any field it has entered, so to accomplish any appreciable retrenchment will require a form of surgery which can only be executed by new leadership; by an administration that is not loaded and waterlogged with hangers-on."

"We Democrats can no longer discharge our responsibilities to our country, to our children and to our children's children by taking refuge in the fact that we have always been of a particular political faith; that we are Democrats and can vote no other ticket."

"Tradition should not dictate our decisions. When we go to the polls to cast our votes for President and Vice President for the next four years, patriotism should tell us to forget party labels this year."

"This will not be a case of leaving our party; rather our party, as we inherited it from our fathers, and as we would still like to have it, has left us."

"The Republican Party nominees, Governors Thomas E. Dewey of New York and Earl Warren of California, have both had successful experience in administering the affairs of their great states and are undoubtedly well qualified to direct affairs of our national government."

"THE CHRONICLE THEREFORE RECOMMENDS THEIR ELECTION."

During World War II more than twice as many Americans died of cancer as were killed in action.

The O-da-kon-ya Camp Fire group, under the guidance of Mrs. D. Ribble, held its first two meetings of the year. At the first meeting the following officers were elected: Dolores Solari, president; Nancy Titus, vice president; Merlyn Shaves, treasurer; Joan Oeser, secretary; Pat Means and Sandra Howard, sunshine committee.

At the second meeting the group went on a tour of the Hunt's cannery. They saw the fruit from the time it came in until the time it left ready for the housewives shelves.

Duck, Deer Seasons Open and Close

California's 1948 deer hunting season comes to a close one-half hour after sunset Friday, October 15, the Associated Sportsmen of California warned hunters today.

At the same time the sportsmen's group reported the first half of a split waterfowl season would open at noon the same day. The waterfowl season runs from October 15 to October 31, inclusive, and later, from December 23 to January 5, inclusive.

Duck bag limits have been upped from four to five birds per day with two limits allowed in possession after opening day. The daily bag and possession limit on geese remains at five, only two of which may be black (speckle breast, Hutchinson, or Canadian Honkers).

Waterfowl hunters are required to purchase both a state hunting license plus a Federal Duck stamp, the latter available at all Post Offices. Shotguns must be plugged to hold not more than three shells, including one in the barrels of repeating or pump types.

John A. Sutter, founder of Sutter's Fort at Sacramento, became a naturalized Mexican citizen on August 29, 1840.

About 100,000 women will die of cancer this year, the American Cancer Society points out.

In Rehearsal for King Lear at State College

This week at San Jose State College 26 drama students, under the direction of Professor James Clancy, began rehearsals of King Lear which will be presented in the Little Theatre October 28 through November 3.

Clancy who is very much at home with the classics as an actor and a scholar will play the difficult title role.

Cordelia, Lear's favorite daughter who motivates much of the action in the double plotted play, is played by Gwenn Dam, a talented San Francisco girl who transferred to State from San Mateo Junior College.

Shirley Wilber of Los Gatos plays Goneril and Gwen Samuelson plays Regan. These are the two daughters who plot to gain control of their father's estate. Dorothy Williams of Campbell and Jance Cattermole are ladies-in-waiting.

The remaining 20 members of the large cast are men. John Calderwood of Santa Cruz has been chosen to play Edmund.

Jackson Young as Edgar, Donald Holladay as the Earl of Kent, William Furnell as the King of France and James Forster as the Duke of Cornwall, all have done outstanding work in Little Theatre plays.

With An Efficient CHARTER-EXECUTIVE County Government

In its first three years under a Charter-Executive government (1938-1941) Los Angeles County cut its tax rate from $1.51 to $1.46. Sacramento County, which has operated under a Charter since 1933, saves $50,000.00 a year through modern cost accounting alone. This, in general, has been the experience of Charter Counties, who have discovered that with centralized administrative and fiscal controls, their tax dollars go further.

Only under your Charter is it possible to integrate the independent departments, districts and agencies, of the County government into an efficient, smooth-running team... under a competent County Executive. Only under your Charter is it possible to accomplish a complete and continuous audit of all County transactions.

Your Charter... a "home-rule" Constitution, tailored to the needs of Santa Clara County... was drawn by 15 of your friends and neighbors, who sat as a board of Freeholders. Serving without compensation, they devoted three months of study, thought and effort in developing the responsive, efficient framework of County government set forth in your Charter.

Carter Asks Farmers To Vote Democratic Ticket at Nov. 2 Election

California farmers were urged today by Oliver J. Carter, chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, "to keep their heads at the polls November 2nd, and not lose them in a whirlwind of Republican promises."

"Farmers should be mindful of what happened to the farms of the State and the Nation under Republican government between 1920 and 1933, and compare conditions then with following years of Democratic administration," Carter said, and added:

"As farm income steadily decreased after 1921, and farm debts and evictions mounted, the whole national economy sagged. But big business, temporarily floating between earth and the high blue sky on a windstream of paper profits went heedlessly on, gambling with the people's future. The Republican party leadership, hearing as always only the voice of their masters, did nothing to curb farm distress. The Republican party went down in the wreck its indifference had created—indifference to the welfare of the land."

"The first Democratic administration that took over the salvage work in 1933 provided leadership for farm programs and laws to implement them. Through counsel and cooperation with farm leaders all over the nation, Democratic government restored security to the country. As the burden of inequity between agricultural and industrial prices lifted, balance was restored and the whole country was set going again."

"California farmers know how the job was done, by cooperation between their local committees, their State committees and their government in Washington. They know, as I know, the magnitude of the job that was done, the soil conservation, the water and power projects, the production and marketing assistance, debt adjustment and credit aid, all vitally important to our California specialty crops."

"This is the Democratic record. I urge farmers to look at this record of solid performance fully before they vote. I ask them to use their judgment and not let the gains of years be blown away on a whirlwind of Republican promises, for the farmers' gains are the gains of all citizens of the State, and any losses to agriculture must be shared by all of us. "Don't be fooled by the rosy promises that the top Republican candidates have made in this campaign. Performance is what counts. The Republicans had just as fine promises in their party platforms in 1920, 1924 and 1928—all through the agricultural depression and right up to the general collapse."

"The Democratic party makes only one promise to all voters—farmers included. If you stand by the Democratic party, it will continue to stand with you."

"With the general welfare of the State in mind, I urge California farmers to go to the polls on November 2nd with your eyes open and your minds clear. You wouldn't sell or lease your land without careful reading of the contract, including the fine print. Be fully as careful in casting your vote."

Campbell District Boy Scout Activities

Eighteen members of the Campbell District Scouters Round Table recently met at Moreland School to discuss fundamentals of Scouting and formulating an interesting Scouting program for the year.

Scoutmaster Ed Carman spoke on clothing requirements for Scout hikes.

Bob Herschback told how to cut hiking equipment to a minimum without omitting essential articles.

District Court of Honor was set for early in November. Time, date and place to be advised later by Homer Hyde, the advancement chairman.

Scoutmasters should arrange with advancement chairman for board of review to examine Scouts who have earned awards to be presented at this Court of Honor.

The planning of a successful troop program was illustrated by motion pictures showing the dependency of the Troop upon interested sponsorship; functioning troop committee; handworking scoutmaster; in addition to enthusiastic participation of Scouts to arouse parental interest. With these requirements filled there would be no need for worry about the development of the youth brought up in Scouting.

Field Executive Ken Robison and Will Wadsworth were present in addition to District Commissioner Milton C. Ryder and George Jeffers.

Boy Scouts of America is a Red Feather organization of your Community Chest.

Next meeting of the Round Table will be at Explorer Post No. 2, October 18.

Two Boy Scout Troops enjoyed the facilities of Stuart Scout camp last week by hiking in to the camp, setting up their areas for camping, cooking all their meals and participating in a general outdoor Scouting program.

Troop 17, sponsored by the Latter Day Saints Church, and under the leadership of Scoutmaster H. M. Taylor hiked from Saratoga on Friday afternoon. This was the second visit to Stuart for Troop 17 in the past month.

Californians Deprived of Vote, VFW Protests to Legislature

The following Scouts were among those present: Larry Taylor, Gordon Stephens, Leslie Nunes, Doyle Nielsen. This Troop plans an overnight at the advanced Madrone Trail camp in the near future. This section of Stuart Camp is reserved for those Troops experienced in camping techniques.

Rotary Club Troop No. 2 of Los Gatos was represented by the following Scouts who hiked over the trail from Los Gatos: Leon Zoble, Kenny Cushman, Hank Young, Ray Geiseck, Jerry Hooton, Junior Ball, Dino Ortolan, Larry McKinley. Scoutmaster Don Hebard gave the boys instructions on setting up camp, cooking and sanitation. Troop Committeeman Gene Rugani also visited the camp to see how the troop was progressing.

Prune Day at Davis Set for October 23

Prune growers from all parts of the state are invited to attend Prune Day to be held in the College of Agriculture experiment station at Davis Saturday, October 23. Keynote of the program which was suggested by the California prune industry will be "Improvement of Quality and Reduction of Cost." University of California speakers will include pomologists under whose auspices the meeting is held, entomologists, plant pathologists, agricultural engineers, food technologists and members of the agricultural extension service.

Among the topics discussed will be nitrogen fertilizing, prune dieback, insect control, mechanical pruning and harvesting, packaging and the relation of harvesting time to the quality of fruit. All topics discussed will have statewide application but local problems won't be overlooked. The program will get under way at 9:45 a.m. and last till 4:15 p.m.

Prune Growers Released from Market Program

The California State Department of Agriculture announced that the Superior Court of Santa Clara County on Oct. 6 issued an order restraining the Prune Program Committee and the State Department of Agriculture from enforcing the pooling and green dropping provisions of the prune program recently made operative for the 1948-49 marketing season. Accordingly, the stabilization program under which 40 per cent of each grower's deliveries of 1948 crop prunes were required to be set aside in a stabilization pool is no longer operative. Also operating Rules and Regulations which became effective for the 1948-49 marketing season are no longer applicable. Packers and growers are now free to buy and sell without regard to the provisions of the stabilization program. The State Department of Agriculture did not contest the suit because of legal and practical difficulties of handling pooling operations upon the 1948 crop of prunes.

An educational, research and trade stimulation program, however, which was made effective in 1947 for a period of four seasons continues in full force and effect. Under this program an assessment of twenty-five cents per ton is levied upon processors under the provisions of the Marketing Order for California Dried Prunes and twenty-five cents per ton levied upon producers under the provisions of the producer Marketing Program for Prunes.

For convenience of collection, the full assessment is collected from the processors, who are authorized to deduct the producer's share of the assessment from monies owed to the producers. Activities under the program include limited educational and promotional activities, marketing research relating to prunes, and negotiations with government agencies on matters affecting the marketing of prunes.

A sore that does not heal might be cancer. See your doctor immediately, the American Cancer Society warns.

How an injured cable calls for help

1. Here's the "ear"—an electronic ear called a low insulation alarm. It listens for underwater cables to signal they're in trouble. Right now the meter shows something's happened... perhaps a sharp submerged rock has cut a cable... and vigilant telephone men using another testing device locate the break that may be miles away.

2. On the job fast, a repair barge grapples for the cable and lifts it from its underwater bed... guided almost to the exact spot by the distant test center. And the moment the break was discovered, other telephone people in the Traffic Control Bureau set up emergency routes to make any delay on your calls as brief as possible.

3. At top speed, skilled workmen splice in a new section and the cable is soon back in service. Although there are hundreds of underwater crossings in the West's many bays and rivers, such emergencies are infrequent. But telephone people are on the job 24 hours a day to keep your telephone ready to work for you any time you need it.

4. When you make a telephone call, you hire a valuable servant for low wages... a more useful servant than ever before. It can do more jobs, run more errands. For today there are twice as many telephones in the West as ten years ago. Thousands more go in each month. And each new phone added makes your telephone that much more useful.

Methodists Will Welcome Bishop

Methodists of California, north of the Tehachapi, and of Nevada will join in welcoming Bishop Donald H. Tippet to the San Francisco Area at a public gathering to be held in the Scottish Rite Auditorium, Tuesday evening, October 19. Mayor Elmer Robinson will extend the official welcome of the city of San Francisco and other civic and religious leaders of the city and State will participate. Ministers and laymen from the California-Nevada Conference and the Pacific Japanese and California Oriental Provisional Conferences, over which the bishop presides, will be in attendance.

A reception will follow the program, which begins at eight o'clock.

The new bishop, who was elected to the episcopacy following an eight-year pastorate of First Methodist Church, Los Angeles, was assigned to the newly-created San Francisco Area last July. He is a native of Colorado and during his early ministry served pastorates in that State. He has been pastor of the Church of all Nations in New York City and of Bexley Church in Columbus, Ohio.

The Rev. Ralph H. Richardson of Hamilton Church, this city is in charge of general arrangements. Among those assisting as committee chairmen are Rev. Rector W. Johnson, Metropolitan district superintendent, Rev. Ettore DiGian-tomasso, Rev. R. Orman Roberts, Mr. P. E. Allan, and Mrs. Rector W. Johnson.

Sales Tax Revenue Exceed Record

Taxable sales during the second quarter of 1948, totalling more than $2.8 billion, produced revenues of $70,208,567, according to figures released today by George R. Reilly, First District Member of the State Board of Equalization. Second quarter sales brought the total for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1948, to $11,053,878,760, an amount 11.9 percent greater than the previous record level reached in the 1946-47 fiscal year. The total tax derived from sales made in the 12 months ended June 30, 1948, was $283,485,845 of which $276,346,969 was self-assessed and $7,138,876 was Board-assessed.

By comparison to the gain in taxable sales, the level of consumer prices rose approximately 8 percent from the average prices of the 1946-47 fiscal year, Reilly observed, indicating that, in general, the increase in volume of goods sold has exceeded the rise in the price level. In some commodity groups this general trend has not been followed, however. Clothing sales during the 1947-48 fiscal year dropped slightly from the level of the previous year, but the price index for this commodity gained by 11.9 percent, pointing to a substantial decrease in the volume of goods sold. Similarly, sales of meals and drinks dropped by 2.2 percent from the level of the 1946-47 fiscal year, while food prices advanced 9.5 percent.

But when he's in there quarter-backing that team . . . you just can't forget him for a second. He's a sure-fire spark plug. His presence in the Buc line-up has a noticeable effect on mates and opponents alike. They both like him . . . only in different ways. The Blue and Gold boys seemed to like him because so many of them seemed to follow him around the field.

The Bucs got down to business in the first quarter. They started piling up first downs on running plays, using Ambler frequently on wide end runs. The Scooter wheeled on a dime and picked his holes with split-second decisions. For straight line plunges Merrill was always good for needed yardage. Danny Hill, still held under wraps, looked good while he was in there. Early in the game playing heads up football and utilizing the power and deception of Swenson's single wing formation with a man in motion the Bucs slipped over their first T.D. The kick went wide and for a few minutes the score was Bucs 6-Tech 0. But then one of the unaccountable things that happen in anybody's game came along. A toughie pass from center eluded Ambler and the Scrambler had to scoop it up behind his own goal line and was smothered before he could seat back across the line. It went for a 2-point safety for Tech. Score: Bucs 6-Tech 2. Not good. Any kind of a break for Tech would give them the game . . . and darn near did. They poured on the power via the aforementioned Calhoun and were off to a not-to-be denied T.D. They powered over their extra point and the game now stood Bucs 6-Tech 9. They got their score the hard way and they earned it. But a look at the clock was a look in the face of keen disappointment. With two minutes to go and Tech hugging onto that ball . . . it didn't look good. Back into the game went Ambler, Jesse Holt, and all the first string who could hobble. They took the ball from the Blue and Gold and again settled down to business. This was it. Either one of those desperate passes had to connect or the Bucs were going to taste bitter defeat for the second consecutive week. Holt got his chance . . . here came the moment that makes a man a champ or a chump (figuratively speaking of course) . . . coolly waiting for Jesse to get into the clear while the entire Tech team came tearing at him, little Bob Pracna heaved a dandy diagonal 25-yarder into the outstretched fingers of the stellar left-ender. But a sigh went up from the stands . . . Jesse was covered by two stalwart defenders . . . and the clock said 15 seconds to go. But miracles do happen. Jesse leaped between his adversaries, snagged the ball, fought and twisted his way the remaining 24 yards to the winning six points. It was the most stirring and exciting play seen by these old orbs in the watching of many prep games. Ambler's dash for the conversion was anti-climatic. It was good but nobody cared.

The 30 boys on the Buc bench.

the rooting section, and the bifurcated and be-canned gentry in the stands dashed madly onto the field.

Jesse was lifted bodily high on the shoulders of his mates, Bill Perry and Art Swenson, the hardied coaches just stood and looked at each other for seconds. They looked stunned. And well they might. Their boys came through when the going was tough, and that's what makes champions. Final score, Campbell 13, Tech 9.

This week's game, Friday, Oct. 15, will be played with Santa Clara under the lights at Santa Clara's Townsend Field. Time 8 p.m. This game should be a corker, he Bucs have their dander up. They're out to upset the dope in the SCVAL.

And now, hmmm, this writer can go back to his weddings, social and club notes and get his arteries back in shape for next Friday night.
